

Link Migration and Saturation Study

- Assist the Department of Defense Joint C4ISR Decision Support Center in Conducting Data Link Migration and Saturation Studies and Assessments to Support Defense Strategy Objectives for Interoperable, Sustainable, and Reliable Systems Within Current and Planned C4ISR Infrastructures
- Contract Task Areas
 - Provide Engineering and Operational Assessments of Tactical Data Link Capacity and Loading Based on Current and Planned Systems and Capabilities
 - Provide Risk Analysis Data to Support Data Link Policy and Acquisition Decisions for Real-world Op Plans and Validated Threat Scenarios
 - Provide Support Assessment of the DoD Joint Tactical Data Link Management Plan for Successful Fielding of Future Systems and Weapons
 - Provide Interoperability Assessments for the Migration of Some Systems to the Wideband Networking Waveform
 - Provide Impact Analysis Incurred by the Integration of the F-35 Joint Strike Fighter Into a Joint Task Force

